Licitar Heart from Zagreb

Conference's token: The licitar heart, originally named Licitarsko Srce, an age-old Croatian tradition, is a uniquely decorated cake made of honey-dough and is symbol of love in Croatia. The humble licitar heart gets the door to one's heart open, softens the soul and brings emotions to the surface. The warmth and affection such a gift shows to our friends make them even more supportive and caring. And finally, those very hearts convert the cry of our ancestors into happiness for keeping their memory alive.
